Systems Necessary to Ensure the Properness of Operations of the Company

(Internal Control Systems)

The Company will establish and implement, as described in the following, systems to ensure that the Company’s Directors comply with laws and regulations and the Company’s Articles of Incorporation in the execution of their duties, and other systems necessary to ensure the properness of the operations of the Company and operations of group of enterprises consisting of the Company and its subsidiaries (these systems are hereinafter referred to collectively as the “Internal Control System”).

The Internal Control System based on this resolution has already been established and implemented, but henceforth the Company will endeavor to establish a superior system in line with requests made from time to time based on ongoing reevaluations.

1. Systems for ensuring that the execution of duties by Directors and employees complies with laws and regulations and the Articles of Incorporation:

- In addition to explicitly requiring compliance with laws and regulations under the “Corporate Mission Statement” of the Sumitomo Corporation Group, the Company will set forth important items that are to be observed with particular strictness from the viewpoint of compliance as “Compliance Guiding Principles,” and a “Compliance Manual” will be prepared and distributed to all officers and employees.
- The Company will require all officers and employees to provide a written “Confirmation of Compliance” with the purport of rigorously assuring strict compliance with laws and regulations.
- Based on the Company’s internal rules, a “Chief Compliance Officer,” a “Compliance Committee,” “Compliance Leaders,” and a “Speak-Up System” will be created.
- The Chief Compliance Officer will supervise the handling of potential and verified compliance violations, will implement measures to ensure compliance, and will deal with matters brought to light via the “Speak-Up System.”
- The Compliance Committee will formulate and propose compliance-related measures, and will offer advice to the Chief Compliance Officer on the implementation of these compliance-related measures.
- Compliance Leaders will rigorously assure compliance in each business unit and domestic and overseas office from a position close to the front lines, and they will also conduct activities relating to compliance enlightenment.
• Routes will be secured via the Speak-Up System that enable employees and officers to communicate information on compliance directly to the Chief Compliance Officer, with the Legal Compliance Department, Corporate Auditors, and outside attorneys serving as liaisons.

2. Systems for retaining and managing information pertaining to the Directors’ execution of their duties:

• Important documents with regard to meetings of each type, including minutes of meetings of the Board of Directors, and information pertaining to the execution of duties and decision-making will be properly preserved and managed under internal rules regarding the respective matters.
• Steps will be taken under internal rules to prevent divulgence of information to third parties or other misuse of information.
• Important documents pertaining to the Directors’ execution of their duties will be made available for review in a timely manner when requested by a Corporate Auditor.

3. Rules and other systems pertaining to the management of risk of loss:

• The various risks associated with the Company’s business will be categorized into two major types of risk and managed. The first type of risk is categorized as “quantifiable risk,” including market risk, investment risk, and credit risk, with respect to which diligent efforts will be made to manage risk and pursue returns in line with such risk through the adoption of the concept of “risk asset management.” The second type of risk is categorized as “non-quantifiable risk,” including natural disasters, mistakes in paperwork, and misconduct, with respect to which the Company will endeavor to limit risk through Company-wide countermeasures.
• The sections of the Corporate Group will build a framework, conduct monitoring, and implement improvements regarding risk management across all levels of the Company through the formulation of internal rules pertaining to the respective areas of operational responsibility and the formulation of risk management policies, methods, and guidelines. In addition, they will strive to improve risk management through the preparation and distribution of manuals and training activities as appropriate. All business units and other sections conducting business will carry out risk management required for the conduct of individual cases under this company-wide framework.
• An “Internal Control Committee” will be instituted and will carry out overall management and timely evaluation of internal controls as a whole on a consolidated basis, along with the identification of important issues with respect to internal controls and the drafting and implementation of basic policies for improvement. In addition, this committee will maintain and improve the Internal Control System and deal with the internal control reporting system based on the Financial Instruments and Exchange Law.

- A “Company-wide Loan and Investment Committee” will be established as an advisory organ to the “Management Council,” which serves as a decision-making body and will carry out deliberations regarding important rules, systems, and the like for risk management and regarding important investment and financing cases.

- Plans for restoration of operations will be set forth to enhance preparedness for disasters and other crisis situations.

- An “Internal Auditing Department” will be established under the direct supervision of the President and Chief Executive Officer as an independent body for company-wide monitoring of operations, and its auditing will apply to all organizations within the Company and in its domestic and overseas subsidiaries. The results of internal auditing will be reported directly to the President and Chief Executive Officer each month and will also be reported regularly to the Board of Directors.

4. Systems for ensuring the efficient execution of the Directors’ duties:

- The size of the Board of Directors will be sufficient to enable full discussions and speedy and reasonable decision-making.

- Two or more Outside Directors will be elected so that through their diverse perspectives, the Company can ensure appropriate decision-making in the meeting of the Board of Directors and further enhancement of supervisory functions.

- A system of Executive Officers will be introduced in order to clarify responsibility and authority for the execution of operations and to endeavor for the strengthening of the supervisory functions of the Board of Directors.

- With the exceptions of the Chairman of the Board of Directors and Outside Directors, all Directors will, in principle, be Representative Directors, and will hold concurrent posts as Executive Officers.

- Management responsibilities will be made clear each business year, and the term of office for Directors will be set at one year so as to respond speedily to changes in the management environment.

- The terms of office of the director serving as the Chairman of the Board of Directors and of the executive officer serving as the President and Chief Executive Officer will not, in principle, exceed six years each.
A “Nomination and Remuneration Advisory Committee” composed of a majority of outside directors will be established as an advisory organ to the Board of Directors. The Nomination and Remuneration Advisory Committee will carry out reviews of selection criteria for directors and auditors, nominations of candidates for directors (including outside directors), Management Council members and Corporate Auditors, and structures/levels of remuneration and bonuses for Directors and Executive Officers, and it will submit the results thereof as recommendations to the Board of Directors.

In addition to the Management Council as a decision-making body, various committees will be established as advisory organs. In addition, “Liaison Meetings” and various other conferences will be instituted for the exchange of information.

A medium-term management plan will be formulated and a budget will be compiled to set goals. In addition, a performance management system will be introduced in order to ascertain the state of General Managers’ execution of operations and to serve in the formulation of strategies for the future.

Under internal rules, agenda items requiring discussion by the Board of Directors will be specified in writing, and the job responsibilities of officers and employees will be made clear; in addition, the decision-making authority of officers and employees regarding important matters will be specified in writing.

5. Systems for ensuring the properness of operations by the corporate group comprising the Company and its subsidiaries:

- The Corporate Mission Statement of the Sumitomo Corporation Group promotes compliance with laws and regulations and the sharing of values to be respected throughout the Group.
- Under internal rules, the Company will set forth the “important management issues” regarding which subsidiaries and other consolidated companies are to report to and consult with the Company. In addition, the Company will manage subsidiaries and other consolidated companies through the dispatch of directors, corporate auditors, and employees and other personnel assigned to execute operations.
- The Company will carry out support so that internal controls are created, operated, evaluated, and improved appropriately at its subsidiaries and other consolidated companies.
- Internal audits of subsidiaries and other consolidated companies of which the Company is the managing entity will be conducted in accordance with internal rules.
- The Company will support its subsidiaries and other consolidated companies to construct a framework for risk management, including risk management policies, methods, guidelines, regulations, etc., and to make necessary improvements thereto.
Subsidiaries will be instructed to develop systems for complying with laws and regulations in the same strict manner as the Company, including through the establishment of a Compliance Committee, the implementation of a Speak-Up System, and the preparation/distribution of a Compliance Manual.

The Company will ascertain its consolidated performance, including that of subsidiaries, promptly and accurately on a monthly basis, and it will carry out performance management in detail.

6. Matters regarding personnel assigned to support the operations of Corporate Auditors:

- A “Corporate Auditor’s Administration Department” will be established to support the operations of the Corporate Auditors, and several full-time staffers will be assigned to this department.
- Internal rules will clearly stipulate those persons authorized to issue instructions to the Corporate Auditor’s Administration Department and the responsibilities of the Corporate Auditor’s Administration Department, and will clearly define the purpose of the Corporate Auditor’s Administration Department as an organization for assisting the Corporate Auditors in their operations.
- The personnel evaluations of the members of the Corporate Auditor’s Administration Department will be conducted by the Board of Corporate Auditors or a Corporate Auditor appointed by the Board of Corporate Auditors. In addition, the Directors shall consult in advance with the Board of Corporate Auditors or a Corporate Auditor appointed by the Board of Corporate Auditors and obtain the consent thereof regarding personnel transfers.

7. Systems for reporting to Corporate Auditors:

- Corporate Auditors may attend all meetings, including those of the Management Council. In addition, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President and Chief Executive Officer, and the Corporate Auditors will meet regularly.
- Important materials pertaining to the execution of operations involving the Company, its subsidiaries and other consolidated companies will be delivered to the Corporate Auditors, and officers and employees will report and give briefings to the Corporate Auditors as necessary.
- Persons submitting the aforementioned reports and persons making contact via the Speak-Up System will not be subjected to adverse treatment due to such reports/contact.
8. Other systems for ensuring that auditing will be carried out effectively by the Corporate Auditors:

- The external Corporate Auditors will be experts on law, accounting, and the like, and auditing will be implemented from diverse points of view.

- The Internal Auditing Department will maintain close contact with the Corporate Auditors so as to contribute to effective auditing by the Corporate Auditors, such as by reporting the plans and results of internal audits to the Corporate Auditors in a timely manner.

- The Corporate Auditors will endeavor to ascertain the audit activities of the Accounting Auditor responsible for auditing the Company’s financial results and exchange information by holding regular meetings, and will endeavor to efficiently and qualitatively improve the audit activities of the Accounting Auditor such as by attending audit evaluation meetings, and being present for inventory audits.

- In order to pursue their duties appropriately, the Corporate Auditors will endeavor to communicate and exchange information with the subsidiaries’ corporate auditors, such as by conducting liaison meetings with them.

- Internal rules will clearly stipulate the methods for handling the expenses and liabilities incurred by Corporate Auditors in the execution of their duties.
